

Integrity Reexamination Commitment

I have read the Instructions to Candidates for the 2024 Postgraduate Admission Second-round Examination of Peking University carefully, and hereby solemnly promise as follows:

1. To protect and cherish my reputation, I will honestly abide by the rules and arrangement of the examination launched by Peking University and my target department, and ensure all my submitted materials are true and effective.
2. I will strictly abide by the rules in the waiting room and the examination room, and I ensure that to answer all the questions independently without cheating and any other violations of discipline. I guarantee that I will not quit the system without permission during the process of the examination.
3. I guarantee that I will not disclose the content and any other details of the examination, and not insult, slander or frame up the experts in the committee group.

You are asked to copy and sign the following at the lines below:

I have carefully read the instructions and solemnly make the above commitment. In case of any violation, I am aware that my test score or admission qualification will be canceled, and all relevant consequences shall be borne by myself.

---

---

---

---

Signature:

Date: