

Integrity Reexamination Commitment

I have read the Instructions to Candidates for the 2025 Postgraduate Admission Second-round Examination of Peking University carefully, and hereby solemnly promise as follows:

1. To protect and cherish my reputation, I will honestly abide by the rules and arrangements of the examination organized by Peking University and the relevant department.
2. I will strictly abide by the rules in the waiting room and the examination room, and ensure all my submitted materials are true and valid.
3. I will strictly abide by the rules in the waiting room and the examination room, and I will answer all questions independently, without cheating or any other violations of discipline. I guarantee that I will not exit the system without permission during the examination process.
4. I guarantee that I will not disclose the content or any other details of the examination, and not insult, slander, or frame up the experts in the committee group.

Please copy and sign the following at the lines below:

I have carefully read the instructions and solemnly make the above commitment. In case of any violation, I am aware that my test score or admission qualification will be canceled, and I will bear all resulting consequences.

Signature:

Date: